

NOTICE: Although Feb. 4, 2016 is the statutory start of Early Voting, they anticipate that ballots will not be available at the beginning of this period. The ballots will be available no later than February 17 - the beginning of Grace Period. Ballots will likely not be available on Feb. 4th due to several objections to nominating petitions. They anticipate that voting systems will be tested and will be available on or before Feb. 17. Any voters who arrive at the Chicago Election Board in the meantime will be provided with an application to Vote By Mail.

IMPORTANT DATES FOR EARLY VOTING:

From Feb. 17 through Feb. 28, Early Voting will be offered only at 69 W. Washington St.

From Feb. 29 through March 12, Early Voting will be offered at 51 sites.

On March 13 and March 14, Early Voting will be offered at the fourteen "permanent early voting sites," as indicated below.

University Early Voting: Dates and times for Early Voting at the University of Illinois at Chicago, Chicago State University and Northeastern Illinois University are at the end of this listing.
