Ford Organizes Nonviolent Protest and March for Justice for All

West Side and Oak Park Unite to End Police Misconduct

CHICAGO – State Representative La Shawn K. Ford, D-Chicago, has organized a nonviolent protest and March for Justice for All.

“We will be calling for police accountability reforms, economic justice, social justice, and an end to racial tensions,” said Ford.

“The unity of Austin and Oak Park to march against police misconduct and racial tensions will continue to sound the alarm of the need to end the mistreatment of Black people,” said Ford. “We will call for social justice and the end to racial tensions in Illinois. Predominantly white communities and predominantly black communities must unite for justice for all.”

Who: State Rep. La Shawn K. Ford; Cook County Commissioner Brandon Johnson, Pastor Walter Jones, Sydney Jackson

What: March for Justice for All

When: Thursday, June 4, 2020, 5 p.m.

Where: Starting at Oak Park Police Station, 123 Madison Oak Park, IL to the Chicago 15th District Police Station, 5701 W. Madison Chicago, IL
