Department: Center for the Advancement of Science Education (CASE)

Status: Full Time

Responsibilities

The Manager for Community Initiatives will manage, develop and implement out-of-school time programs that promote science learning experiences that engage targeted and diverse audiences in the community and at the Museum. As part of the Museum's Center for the Advancement of Science Education (CASE), the position will manage MSI's growing network of after-school Science Minors Clubs to maximize the Museum's impact locally, regionally, and nationally. Work includes mentoring and managing a team of science educators, leading the development of new program resources and materials, managing the current suite of programs, stewarding relationships with external partners, coordination with evaluators and researchers, and participation in implementation and management of new out-of-school time and after-school programs and partnerships.

Qualifications

Master's degree or equivalent experience in science, education or related discipline, or 5+ years' related experience and/or training required. Demonstrated experience in curriculum development and program design is essential.

Experience in developing and delivering programs for educators working in non-traditional learning environments required. Experience with elementary and middle-grade age students required. Candidates must have a strong understanding of the opportunities and challenges of out-of-school time programs. Experience supervising staff required. Ability to develop and maintain strong external partnerships.

Strong affinity for STEM disciplines. Must be creative and dynamic; exhibit enthusiasm, initiative, flexibility, and openness to new ideas.

Detail oriented; excellent verbal and written communication skills, including public speaking required. Must demonstrate comfort in a team environment, with strong collaboration skills. An ability to work on multiple projects and meet deadlines.

Excellent project management, planning and organizational skills.

Proficiency in MS Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook, Publisher) required.

Desired

Familiarity with programming in a variety of educational settings including schools, science centers and/or other museums. Bilingual ability a plus.

Manager

As an AMC theatre manager you'll ensure the best possible out-of-home entertainment experience available. That's what we do. We're AMC®, and we're one of the largest entertainment companies in the world. You'll be in charge of making sure the theatre runs smoothly so that every single guest enjoys the show, managing theatre associates and maintaining an environment that provides superior customer service. Sound hands on? It is.

Ensure successful daily theatre operations by executing the following fundamentals:

- Providing service that is friendly, helpful and fast
- Maintaining facilities that are clean, safe and in good repair
- Providing an experience that is comfortable, distraction-free and picture-perfect
- Serving fresh, appetizing and properly prepared food and beverages

Encourage associates to maximize their personal growth and development by:

- Guaranteeing associates meet and exceed guest-service standards
- Ensuring proper staffing in each area of the theatre
- Performing daily opening and closing operational duties
- Reviewing financial numbers on a regular basis and make operations adjustments, as necessary
- Overseeing an individual theatre department, as assigned by theatre General Manager

Pretty straightforward, huh? We think so. But we're not looking for just anyone. Do you have what it takes?

- Receptive to training and personal development
- Effective written and oral communication skills along with strong analytical skills
- Equally comfortable communicating and working with guests, supervisors, peers, subordinates or vendors
- Possess computer skills and applicable work experience

At AMC, we live in a team-based culture where a take-charge approach exists at all levels. Especially, when you want to take charge of your career. We offer continuous training and development programs, highly competitive compensation with performance-driven bonuses and excellent benefits including free movie passes, health and 401(k) plans. If working in the entertainment world, delivering superior customer service and a fun working environment matter to you, apply online today at <https://www.amctheatres.com/careers/theatre-management/manager>. You could end up working in show business.

Restaurant Theatre Manager

As an AMC® restaurant/theatre manager you'll ensure the best possible in-theatre dining and entertainment experience available. That's what we do. We're AMC, and we're one of the largest entertainment companies in the world. Right now we're expanding our in-theatre dining locations and need experienced restaurant managers to help run the show. You'll be in charge of making sure our in-theatre dining facilities run smoothly so that guests enjoy their food, beverages and movies. Additionally, you'll manage associates and provide superior customer service. Sound hands on? It is.

Ensure successful daily restaurant theatre operations by focusing on the fundamentals:

- Providing service that is friendly, helpful and fast
- Maintaining facilities that are clean, safe and in good repair
- Providing an experience that is comfortable, distraction-free and picture-perfect
- Serving fresh, appetizing and properly prepared food and beverages

Encourage associates to maximize their personal growth and development by:
