

Fundraising Seller

US Cellular Field

Job Description:

Chicago White Sox Charities, the non-profit arm of the Chicago White Sox, is looking for dependable, enthusiastic, highly-motivated, and hardworking game day sellers.

Individuals will help sell for day-of-game fundraising initiatives including but not limited to: Sox Split 50/50 program, car raffle program, bobblehead campaign and other miscellaneous events as assigned. Sox Split is a charity raffle program whereby tickets are sold throughout the ballpark during every White Sox home game. One lucky fan takes home half of the net proceeds from that night's raffle ticket sales, with the other half benefiting Chicago White Sox Charities. The car raffle program, which also benefits Chicago White Sox Charities, offers tickets for sale online and in-park during White Sox home games. Fans purchase tickets for the chance to win a White Sox themed car at the end of the season.

Applicants must:

- be 18 years of age or older
- have good cash handling and customer service skills
- be comfortable with technology
- be comfortable approaching people and selling in front of crowds
- be comfortable working in inclement weather (U.S. Cellular Field is an outdoor ballpark)
- understand the timing/pacing of baseball

Program Details:

- Sellers start at $11.25/hour and work 3-4 hours per game
- Opportunity to work 81 home games -- 70% night games/ 30% day games (sellers are not required to work all home games, schedule is based on seller availability)
- Position is part-time (April-October)
- Uniform is provided
- Fundraising initiatives will run from gates open until the end of the 6th inning unless otherwise specified
- Any new sellers are required to attend a mandatory new-hire training session. Date is TBD.
